OCDF Publications is a division of Our Chinese Daughters Foundation (OCDF), a 501c3 non-profit organization based in Bloomington, IL and Beijing, China. Established in 1995, OCDF is dedicated to providing high quality Chinese culture programs to all children and families with children adopted from China.

OCDF provides:

Seminars and workshops on Chinese culture (including programs for kids, teachers and parents) as well as hands-on arts and crafts programs with artisan-developed learning kits.

Books, workbooks, magazines and online resources about China and Chinese culture.

Tours to China for teachers, students, and school exchange programs.

Language & Culture and Artisans & Crafts Summer Camp programs, and a Teen Leadership Program in China annually.

Internships for college students in business and industry in China are arranged for many premier universities/colleges.

Homeland tours to China for adoptive families.

OCDF provides facilitation of US adoptions from China through a consortium of US-based adoption agencies and adoption services for expats living in China.

Volunteer programs in China for educators and families who wish to help at orphan care locations.

Orphan support projects and fundraising for orphan care in China through Kids Helping Kids, thus assisting schools and students to help and support the needs of kids in China.
